Professor Kevin Chan Ka Shing

Professor CHAN Ka Shing Kevin obtained his Bachelor of Social Science in Psychology from The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Master of Philosophy in Psychiatry from The University of Hong Kong, and Doctor of Philosophy in Psychology from The Chinese University of Hong Kong. He joined The Education University of Hong Kong as an Assistant Professor in 2013, and was promoted to Associate Professor in 2017, and to Professor in 2024. He served as the Co-Director of the Centre for Psychosocial Health from 2015 to 2018. He was the Programme Leader of the Bachelor of Social Sciences in Psychology Programme in 2017, and led to design the Master of Arts in Positive Psychology in Education Programme in 2019. He has been the Head of Department of Psychology since 2020.

Professor CHAN is a psychologist studying the stigma of mental disorders and developmental disabilities. He is keen in using research to inform mental health education and mental health promotion. He has conducted several research and knowledge transfer projects to promote the well-being of children with special needs. He has also conducted several teaching development grant projects to enhance the mental health of university students.

Professor CHAN has received several research and teaching awards from the University, including the President's Award for Outstanding Performance in Research (Early Career Excellence) and the Faculty Teaching Award. He has also received the Rising Star Award from the Association for Psychological Science.

Information provided by School Manager